Re: Hindsland/Morning Mills Farm development

My local Councillor has alerted me to the issue that the approved plans for the Hindsland/Morning Mills Farm development call for ‘around’ 700 houses. It seems to me extremely important that a maximum figure be stipulated. ‘Around’ could mean 707 or 770 (‘only’ 10% more than 700). This seems to me so obvious, I expect you have already agreed with Councillor Shing and made the necessary change. In which case – many thanks!
