SANDRA LANGFORD Re: Housing on Hindlands

To whom it may concern.

I find it hard to understand that the wording of "around" in the modifications by WDC cannot be changed to "maximum". If the proposed number is 700 new homes - then it should be so. I find it very untrustworthy of the WDC not to listen to residents' concerns.

This area has many elderly residents' that do not have computer facilities and perhaps will find it difficult to put down on paper their views and post to the WDC. Further debate on this matter must be held otherwise it will be a freehand for the WDC to increase the number of homes.

Think of the traffic and congestion - ask yourselves - would you like it???
