Dear Mr Carvey

Uckfield District/Town Council have been very quiet about this proposed development of 1,000 new properties. It has seemingly been slipped out by Wealden DC to Uckfielders with minimal fanfair, presumably on the basis that they hope no one really notices it is going to happen or opposes it:-

On the assumption that Ridgewood Farm have sold out and the development is going ahead, I have a couple of points to make:-

1. Is Uckfield Council supportive of it?

2. Would Uckfield Council not agree with me the 1,000 new homes is far too big for both the size of the plot and the town as a whole?

3. Would the council agree that the consultation , such as it was, was ineffective and inadequate and the period needs to be reopened?

Please confirm what the Councils' next steps will be.

Many thanks

Yours sincerely,

Andrew Lees
