YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

The plan to build 424 houses on Downlands Farm near Uckfield has been turned down by Wealden D.C. I support this decision for many reasons, the most important being:
1. Uckfield is currently being over developed which is putting the local infrastructure in danger.
2. Downlands Farm is a major home to wildlife.
3. More traffic congestion will happen due to the construction of a new roundabout and access roads.
4. Wildlife corridors will be closed.
5. My wife and I have lived in Uckfield for 22 years which will be badly damaged by this plan if given the go-ahead.
