YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

My wife and I are uckfield born and bred ,we love our town and it's surrounding rural areas, and we are sick to death of the way our town has been targeted and ruined by developers being able to consistently build on our green belt areas ,all due to a lapse by the corrupt Wealden council.
It's beyond belief how after being refused twice that these people can keep on appealing until they finally gain the permission to build .
Our town has undergone an astronomical amount of ruination in the last 5 years due to overdevelopment and can no longer sustainably cope with more disgusting housing estates,the traffic here is now ridiculous for such a small town.
This development is intent on destroying our wonderful woodland and lower fields ,all untouched for millennia,to allow this site to go ahead would be criminal in our minds ,an absolute disgraceful destruction of one of our few remaining woodlands.
This town has had the guts ripped out of it mall in the name of greed!
Leave uckfield alone from now on ,we've had enough!
