
R.T. STREATFEILD SQR.
ESTATE BOOK

Observations.

By the average of Wheat on the Riverside it will be evident the rents of 1813 could not continue to be paid. This depression and the heavy debts on the Estate rendered it difficult to meet the annual demands for some years. The death of Col. Gallini and the payments from Peacebridge have enabled me to improve the property and the following Lands have been added to the Estate.

Shamian reed Wood.
Knights Blackhouse farm & House
Sam.l Jenners Farm & Cottage

UCKFIELD ROCKS ROAD Buckswood Grange (formerly listed as Buckwood Grange, CHURCH STREET (south side), previously listed as The Rocks)

12.4.78

II A private school from World War II until 2000 subsequently converted into housing. Formerly the home of the Streatfield family who were responsible for various local venefactions. Built by Sydney Smirke in 1838 in Tudor style. Asymmetrical building of two storeys and attic. Red brick, with some diaper patterns on ground floor. Long and short quoins, window dressings and plinth, all of stone. Clustered brick chimney pots. Front elevation has a projecting portion of two storeys and attics with gable surmounted by ball finials. Oriel window to first floor. Four-centred stone archway with hood moulding. The part set back has a pierced panel with stone coping, moulded eaves cornice, part stringcourse and mullioned and transomed windows. The right side has two shaped gables and blank cartouches.
