2. Comments on the Neighbourhood Plan

I fully support the Horam Neighbourhood Plan and would like to thank all of those involved for their hard work in bringing it together. The plan is a true and recognisable description of the area which seeks to preserve the natural assets and distinct villages. It has clearly been compiled by people who care about the area.

I commend the writers for emphasising the importance of local settlement gaps. I am pleased to see that there are plans to enhance the Cuckoo Trail and the importance placed on the drainage issues faced by several areas.

The section on views is very interesting, as we all know that we do not own our view, it is a relief to see that the plan recognises the importance of retaining local views.

Although I appreciate the limited extent to which future development falls within the remit of the Neighbourhood Plan, I feel reassured that, if adopted, the Plan will help to maintain the character of the area.
